

PARTICIPATION OF AZUS ON THE 39TH PLENARY MEETING OF THE SEEHN

On November 23rd and 24th, Bulgaria as presiding country of the South-Eastern Europe Health Network (SEEHN), organized the 39th plenary meeting in Sofia. Marija Mitic, as representative of the Agency for Accreditation of Healthcare Institutions of Serbia (AZUS) and RHDC on Accreditation and continuous quality improvement of health care, attended this meeting. Since 2012, RHDC on Accreditation and continuous quality improvement of health care was established within the Agency for Accreditation of Healthcare Institutions of Serbia and director of AZUS is acting as director of this RHDC as well.

This meeting was attended by the Ambassador of the Republic of Serbia in Sofia, Mr. Vladimir Curguz, Dr. Danijela Urosevic the Assistant Minister of Health, management and representatives of the SEEHN Secretariat, as well as representatives of other RHDCs and partners of the SEEHN, such as World Health Organization (WHO) and Regional Cooperation Council.

The meeting focused on two strategic issues: the Action plan for the implementation of the Chisinau Pledge in the period 2017-2020, as well as improving the health of children and youth, promoting healthy lifestyles and contributing to the prevention of non-communicable diseases.

The meeting took into consideration SEEHN strategies for the upcoming period, the SEEHN reports on previous work, the financial report for 2017 and plan for 2018, as well as proposals for organizing workshops in cooperation with TAIEX.

The representative of AZUS had a chance to exchange experiences and share future directions, as well as possibilities for the future cooperation with the representatives of the SEEHN countries.
